No matter whether she's pretty or not, low much or how little money she's got, Whether she live in a mansion or cot, 'Tis a fact, depend upon it;

The woman to make a man happy thro' life,
To make a model mother and wife,
Is one who, scorning the milliner strife,
Wears a plain and tasteful bounct.

Now a bonnet of genuine beauty and grace, Worn on the head in its proper place, Shadowing faintly the wearer's face, "Is a thing for a song or a sonne But one of those gay and gaudy things, Made up of rainbows and butterfly wings, A mixture of flowers, ribbons and strings, Is dreadful, depend upon it.

A vulgar mass of "fuss and feather." A little of everything thrown together, As if by a touch of windy weather, A wretched conglomeration— A sort of cup to catch the hair, Leaving the head to "go it bare," A striking example of "Nothing to Wear,"
Is this bonnet abomination.

It makes a women brazen and bold,
Assists her in catching nothing but cold,
Is bad on the young, absurd on the old,
And deforms what it ought to deck;
For look at her face, no bonnet is there, See at the side it hangs by a hair, View it behind and you will declare That the creature has broken her nock

No matter where you may chance to be, No matter how many women you see,
A promiscuous crowd or a certain she,
You may fully depend upon it;
That a gem of the very rarest kind, A thing most difficult to find, A pet for which we long have pined, I a perfect "love of a bonnet."

In the Money article of the N. Y. Herald, June 3d, it said: "We learn from Michigan that the prospect for crops never looked better, and owing to their being mostly chattel mortgage to their being mostly obtated mortgage to their being mostly obtated mortgage to their being mostly obtated mortgage to the ime, yet I took some pains to post myself on that kind of papers, and found in several instances, that not more than one acre in every thousand of the growing crops were in that condition. The farmers of Michigan owe the merchants—so do the farmers of every State, at certain times, owe the merchants—so do the farmers of every State, at certain times, owe the merchants of their State; but I doubt if under the sun, in this wide world, you can find a more solvent, in-dependent, and you may add, intellidoubt if under the sun, in this wide world, you can find a more solvent, independent, and you may add, intelligent set of tillers of the soil, taken as a whole, than the farmers of the Wolverine State. I don't set in a New York office and guess about these things, but learn them from buisness connections and traveling. The credit of Michigan merchants and farmers is the best among those that have had the most experience in it, and every one that knows anything about it, knows anything about it, knows anything about it, knows the N. Y. Herald's Commercial editor was wrong.

safely invest money on interest at rates very seldom obtained, and always upon ample and undoubted security.

In making leans we always require the conveyance taken to secure the money and interest, to be the first incumbrance upon the property.

The property to be valued on a personal inspection, at the lowest rate at which such property will sell in the place where located, and if farm-lands, the buildings not to be taken in the estimate.

The amount loaned not to exceed one-half of the value of the property so estimated.

The conveyance, whether Trust, Deed or Mortgage, will be so drawn as to provide for a sale of the property for the whole debt owing, in case default be made in the payment of the interest, which will secure the prompt payment of the same.

Policies of Insurance will also be taken upon the buildings at the expense of the borrower.

Interest payable annually, and in some cases semi-annually, upon the whole sum, and a covenant on the part of the borrower embodied in the conveyance, that, in case of a sale or forcelosure, the expense of the same to be paid from the property, so that the lender in all cases shall obtain the full amount of the stipulated interest.

Ten per cent, interest, invariably, will be guaranteed, and, in some cases, a higher rate can be realized without violation of the interest laws.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills, FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY LIVEIG, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleaner, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and resturing its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of their properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanae, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Centireness, Heartham, Headacke arising from disordered Stomach, Nausca, Indigestion, Pain in and Marbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Janualice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. They are an excellent alterntive for the renovation of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.
